A People in Need of Hope

For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, & the government will be on his shoulders. And He will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace (Isaiah 9:6)

He will proclaim peace to the nations... (Zech. 9:10b)

He will stand & shepherd His flock in the strength of the Lord...they will live securely, for then His greatness will reach to the ends of the earth. And He will be their peace (Micah 5:4-5).

When these verses were written, God's voice became quiet. So when these verses were fulfilled at the first Christmas, the people were in need of hope. We, like the people during the prophet's days, are a people in need of hope. We live amongst people who need to hear the message of hope. The Church is poised to share just such a message. We need to be light in dark places as people become more and more desperate for hope. The book of John gives not so much a historical account of His birth, but more of an application of the magnificent event.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was with God in the beginning. Through Him all things were made; without Him nothing was made that has been made.

In Him was life, and that life was the light of men.

The light shines in the darkness, but the darkness has not understood it (John 1:1-5).

Yet to all who received him, to those who believed in His name, He gave the right to become children of God—Children born not of natural descent, nor of human decision or a husband's will, but born of God.

The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us.

We have seen his glory, the glory of the One and Only, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth (John 1:12-14).

For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.

For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him. (John 3:16-17)

The Hope of Christmas is found at the manger, God came to us! GOD CAME TO US!! It was His initiative not ours. Our hope is not found in the results of the election or in the amount in our checkbook. Our hope comes when we humbly bow at the manger and allow Him to reign in us.

Thou didst leave Thy throne and Thy kingly crown,

When Thou camest to earth for me;

But in Bethlehem's home was there found no room

For Thy holy nativity.

O come to my heart, Lord Jesus,

There is room in my heart for Thee (from the hymn Thou Didst Leave Thy Throne)

As we prepare and celebrate Christmas this year, may we look to the Prince of Peace for our hope. Once we find it there, may we then be people who display that Peace and Hope to a world who desperately need to hear of such Hope! As the hymn implores:

Joy to the world, the Lord is come! Let earth receive her King;

Let every heart prepare Him room, And Heaven and nature sing, (from the hymn Joy to the World)

RAMALLAH FRIENDS SCHOOL

By IAYM Missions Board

Friends United Meeting is announcing a significant transition for the Ramallah Friends School(RFS). During the last twelve years, Joyce Ajlouny has served as Director of RFS. Alongside the Staff and RFS board, Joyce has helped transform RFS into a premier educational institution in Palestine and one rooted in the values of Friends.

A few of Joyce's accomplishments during the last twelve years include:

- Initiated and oversaw the historic creation of a new academic division – the Middle School — on the Upper School campus and ensured the design and construction of a state-of-the-art “green” building with the help of an international architectural firm specializing in schools
- Asserted Quaker ethos through various programs including the development of Quaker Faith and Practice and Quaker/RFS History Courses and a Problem Solving program for the Lower School.
- Nurtured and developed the exchange program with US Quaker Schools adding two new schools.
- Initiated and supported two successful and ongoing summer programs: “I Know I Can Summer Academies” and “Go Palestine Summer Camp”, the former brings Teach for America educators to Palestine who run a creative summer camp for all ages and the latter brings together international youth with RFS students for a 3-week service and cultural immersion experience.

Other news includes the Upper School students just completed a business competition where they opened a recycling company selling all kinds of recycled crafts. Friends and colleagues from George Fox University School of Education visited the Upper School for a week with the focus on MYP planning, assessment, and interdisciplinary unit planning. The Lower School has an Environmental Club which reclaimed land by creating an organic garden in neglected area of the school campus. A drip irrigation system minimizes water consumption.

Over the last three years, Joyce has discussed with the FUM General Secretary an eventual transition into a new position that would capitalize on her unique gifts, background and further dreams for RFS. One of Joyce's passions is to grow a stronger endowment for student scholarships and for operational expenses that will keep the cost of education affordable for Palestinian families. With her strong track-record and success in raising funds and her expertise in securing facility grants, alumni support and endowment funding, we are now prepared to free Joyce to focus more exclusively on building the capacity for RFS.

Thanks to a very generous gift by US donors, FUM is pleased to announce that Joyce Ajlouny will be transitioning out of the role of Director of RFS into a new US-based position focused on Advancement and Alumni Relations. A search for a new, Ramallah-based Head of School will commence immediately. A position announcement and job description for this FUM field staff appointment is being finalized and will be available soon. Joyce will continue to oversee the operations of the school until the new Head of School is in place, ideally before the end of the current academic year.

Clearly, Joyce has served and led the school exceedingly well. As she transitions to a new role, we are grateful that she will continue to apply her gifts for the benefit of the school and Palestinian community. We ask you to keep Joyce in your prayers as she moves into this new season of ministry and pray for the Friends United Meeting Global Ministries Department as a search for a new Head of School begin.

50 Days of Prayer for Revival

All the churches of Iowa Yearly Meeting are urged to join in 50 Days of Prayer from February 4 to March 25.

This united prayer effort is sponsored by IAYM Ministry and Counsel.

Concert of Prayer – February 4

The 50 Days of Prayer for Revival will start with a Concert of Prayer on Saturday, February 4 at 2:00 p.m. There will be five locations and churches may choose the location closest to them. During that meeting the five locations will connect by Internet for corporate prayer.

Daily Prayer – Weekly Small Groups

During the seven weeks following February 4, everyone is encouraged to commit to pray daily for revival. A daily prayer guide, Pursuing Pentecost, is available to help guide those prayer times. Churches are also encouraged to organize small groups to meet weekly to pray together. There are questions in the prayer guide for group discussion and suggestions for group prayer. There will also be 5-minute video clips available to start the weekly prayer meetings. The video clips include a short testimony and someone leading in prayer for the theme of that week.

The four themes are intimacy with God, purity, unity and power of the Holy Spirit. A Facebook page is being developed to allow people across the Yearly Meeting to connect with prayer requests, answers to prayer, or updates on what God is doing in your meeting.

More information about these resources will soon be sent to the churches or you may contact Charlotte Stangeland with questions, stangelandchar@gmail.com.

Concluding Meeting

The 50 Days of Prayer will conclude with a special revival meeting on Saturday, March 25. This holy convocation will be held following Spring Body of Representatives at approximately 2:00-4:00 p.m. at Mesquakie Friends Church. All churches are encouraged to gather together at this time and hear what the Lord will say to us through a special speaker and gifted musicians.

We hope all Iowa Yearly Meeting Churches are prayerfully considering how you will participate. We now have confirmation that Steve Pedigo will be the speaker for the March 25 meeting. Steve and Marlene led an inner-city ministry in Chicago for 30 years and he is currently pastor at Westfield Friends in Indiana. Steve has a masters' degree from Asbury Seminar and Ph.D from North Park Seminary in Chicago. He is passionate about the life transforming power of Jesus Christ.

Nominations for potential applicants for 2017 Pickett Endowment grants are now being received.
Nominations close January 15, 2017

The mission of the Clarence and Lilly Pickett Endowment is to recognize and nurture future Quaker leaders. Nominees must be active attendees, but not necessarily members in a Quaker meeting.

As individuals must first be nominated before they can apply, nominators are an essential part of the grant cycle.

If you know of an individual who could benefit from a Pickett Endowment grant you may complete a nomination online at pickettendowment.quaker.org/. It only takes a few minutes. Grants are awarded to those individuals whose application clearly demonstrates potential for leadership and whose self-initiated project has potential to make a contribution toward betterment of humankind. Priority is given to those individuals between the ages of 18-35 initiated projects.

Additional information about Pickett Endowment grants and a listing of former grantees with brief description of their projects is available on the Pickett Endowment website.

Nominations close January 15, 2017
